at Auction, Went to Samuel Armstrong. Several pieces of improved Manhattan real estate were put up at auction yesterday by Bryan L. Kennelly for the Meeks estate in the Vesey street exchange. They were the five story English basement dwelling at 31 West Twenty-seventh street, formerly Browne's Chop House; the five story misiness building at 28 and 30 Vesey street, northeast corner of Church street, and the we story business building at 14 and 16 Vesey street, which contains the auction silesroom. The Twenty-seventh street property was bought by Louis Cohen, furrier, for $70,000. There was no effective competition for the Vesey street roperties, however, and these were bid by heirs of the estate. 'A fourth parcel sold by the same auctioneer was the four WILLCOX'S IDEAS ON SUBWAYS. Chairman of the Public Service Board to Real Estate Men.

Chairman William R. Willcox of the Public Service Commission in an address vesterday afternoon to the Allied Real Estate Interests said that the present subway situation was lamentable and was discreditable to a city of the immense resources of New York. The city ought to be ashamed of the plea that it could not find money.

Mr. Willcox said that the only way out seemed to be by finding means to attract private capital, retaining always the right of the city to purchase the roads at the

"The Public Service Commission has no power over the city's purse strings," said Mr. Willcox. "We have no particular interest in what way this money is furnished We stand ready to build a section of subway or six sections of subway or twenty sections of subway if the means are only forthcoming by which those sub-ways can be built. We have completed the plans for the Fourth avenue subway the plans for the Fourth avenue subway in Brooklyn and those plans are now before the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. We have laid out the Broadway-Lexington avenue subway. The plans have been approved, and we shall now go ahead and make the specifications and the plans ready for public letting, and then it will be submitted to the Board of the plans that the submitted to the Board of the plans that the submitted to the Board of the submitted to the submitted to the Board of the submitted to the submitted to the Board of the submitted to th Estimate and Apportionment. But if the board tell us that there is no money then under the present law that subway will have to wait, as will all others."

GIRL WHO ACCUSED HITCHCOCK Went First to Magistrate With the Story Since Recanted.

The regular county Grand Jury will take ip on Monday the investigation of the perjury charge against Flora Whiston. the girl who changed her testimony at the trial of Raymond Hitchcock. Her mother and stepfather have been subpornaed and Magistrate Cornell will be a witness.
Magistrate Cornell has informed Assistant District Attorney Garvan that the girl and her mother came to him and that the girl told him she had been assaulted by Hitch-cock. Magistrate Cornell informed the Gerry society, and the story told by the girl before the Grand Jury, which she recanted at Hitchcock's trial, was the same story she told him. It was said at the District Attorney's office that the abduction charge made against Hitchcock by Elsie Voecks would be tried as soon as possible.

A Period of Sober Reflection

It is conceded that the greatest protection to the public in dealing with corporations is publicity. If a company has nothing to conceal it should not object to giving the public full information as to its affairs. The Lawyers Mortgage Company is the only Mortgage Company that tells all about its business-the amount of Guaranteed Mortgages outstanding, the amount of delinquent interest, the number of foreclosures during the year, and every item from which the public can judge for itself the uniform solidity and strength of its mortgage investments.
